

K-LOVE is an important part of my daily routine. I listen during my work commute. It is part of my morning devotions. It is a necessary media method to promote moral and ethical community life in our increasingly corrupt world. Without it the "darkness" will increasingly overtake our community. K-LOVE is a positive and encouraging moral family-friendly influence on communities all across America. Please do not expand the LPFM service.